If our relation to it, the law of life and truth, be healthy and normal, Israel can suffer no ill; if sick, Israel cannot be well. There is no evil, no wrongful development in Judaism which does not owe its origin to an improper or sinful comprehension of the Torah, or at least is perpetuated thereby. Our sages with profound insight point to this as the true cause of the first national downfall, "1D13 N DEGREEESK* FT DEGREEESnn mifO, that they did not study the Law with the firm resolve to fulfill it in life and for life; life, the practical daily life of the world, fled from the Law, and the Law could not therefore properly pervade life, could not adequately enlighten it and inspire it with its, the Law's, own genial warmth. If you search for the cause of our modern sickness, you will find it nowhere else than in this fatal misconception and misapprehension. Excerpt from The Nineteen Letters of Ben Uziel: Being a Spiritual Presentation of the Principles of Judaism I now commend my work, which, imperfect though I feel that it is, has, nevertheless, occupied most of my leisure hours during the past three years, to the judgment of the English reading public interested in the thinkers of Israel, and the thoughts they think. If this version succeeds in drawing the attention of some to the life-work of one of the noblest laborers in the vineyard of Israel, Dreamers of the Ghetto, called by shallow, carping lips; if it cause them to ponder a little upon the meaning of Judaism and its message to the world, my reward will be as great as I have dared to hope.
