Rent Our Space | Raven Theatre Chicago

Raven Theater has two performance spaces, and this excellent performance took place in the smaller one. The individual performances were strong and persuasive, and the ugly motives well revealed. One major scene change struck us as a brilliant piece of directing with the entire cast in motion, moving pieces and shouting over one another to create a completely different space from the previous scene.

"The Raven" is a narrative poem by American writer Edgar Allan Poe. First published in January 1845, the poem is often noted for its musicality, stylized language, and supernatural atmosphere. It tells of a talking raven's mysterious visit to a distraught lover, tracing the man's slow fall into madness. The lover, often identified as a student, is lamenting the loss of his love, Lenore.
